12 20/088 COMMUNITY ARTS PROJECT

Cllr. Reigate reported that two councillors had been interviewed by the pupils at Angmering School who were taking part in the project. Both interviews went extremely well, and a lot was learned by all. Both councillors will continue to speak with the school to help move this project forward.

The Committee Clerk had been asked to read out the following message of thanks:

National youth arts charity Artsworld would like to pass on their sincere thanks to Councillors Reigate and Evans for their time and ideas working remotely with students at Angmering School earlier this month to support their new sculpture project. The session, part of the 9 month project at the school led by Artsworld, is inspiring and training young people in Year 9 to in creative design skills, working with nationally acclaimed artist Tim Ward to develop a new sculpture for the village. The councillors involvement gave the students a real sense of 'buy in' from their local community and both staff and the artist commented on how interesting and exciting the ideas the councillors brought to the conversation were. We are looking forward to sharing updates as the project progresses.

Cllr. A Evans gave an overview of his interview and commented he would be going into the school to look at the designs early next year when it was safe to do so due to COVID-19.

Cllr. N Hamilton-Street then reported on a conversation she had had with the school and the plans for a 10 day arts festival hopefully taking place in June 2021 to be named 'Angmering Calling'. She spoke about the plans being put in place to engage the whole of Angmering and to get everyone involved which would build up to the unveiling of the sculpture at the Community Centre. There were a lot of exciting ideas on what could take place during these 10 days. It was also hoped that this could become an annual event.

Cllr. Harris suggested the recipient of the Fred Rowley Award could be asked to unveil the sculpture and possibly present any prizes.

Cllr. R Evans suggested that as the longest day would be during the 10 day festival this could be celebrated in some way. Cllr. N Hamilton-Street will suggest this to the festival organisers.
