

Calendar Competition T&Cs 2026

Terms & Conditions

- All entries to be received by Monday 4 August 2025.
- Only digital entries can be accepted. Images to be emailed to admin@angmering-pc.gov.uk
- High resolution jpg images only
- Photos must be submitted in landscape orientation and will be cropped to A4 size.
- We cannot accept photos with logos, signatures or text.
- Your name, email and phone number needs to be included with your entry.
- All entries must be your own work.
- Entries will appear on social media so you must have gained permission from any people who are in the photographs and/or parent/guardian permission if any of the subjects are children.
- Children are welcome to enter with guardian's permission and should be submitted from a parent or guardian's email address.
- Maximum of 3 entries per person.
- Angmering Parish Council will select their favourite 13 entries (one to go on the front cover) and these will be featured in the calendar. The photographer's name will appear alongside the photo.
- The calendar will be available for sale at Angmering Revealed on Saturday 20 September 2025 with any copies not sold available to buy from the Parish office and at the Angmering @ Christmas event.
- The calendar will be sold at £5 per calendar and the whole £5 will go to Angmering Parish Councils Charity of the Year which this year is Wadars.
- By entering the competition, you agree that Angmering Parish Council has the rights to publish any of the submitted photographs on their social media, website, other publicity and promotion in the future. Entrants will retain copyright of their submitted photographs.
- Angmering Parish Council reserves the right to disqualify any participant who violates the competition rules or engages in inappropriate or fraudulent conduct.
- Angmering Parish Councils decision is final; no correspondence will be entered into.
- Winners will be notified through the contact information provided during submission within 28 days of the closing date.
- By entering the competition, participants acknowledge that they have read and agree to abide by these terms and conditions.
- Angmering Parish Council reserves the right to update these terms and conditions without notice.